

Daily Fashion Hint

BY LA RACONTEUSE

An adorable little gown for a dinner and characteristic of the new short length, is this original evening gown developed in "gros crepe d'or" embroidered with roses and rubis. The bodice is of beaded and spangled net, opened in square over a small waist coat, totally embroidered. It is edged, as the finish of the sleeves, with a row of strass.

The skirt is draped in the new "peg top" style, fastened in front and slit at the height of the knees over a gathered flounce of beaded silk muslin.

A pendant of pearls fastens the bodice and falls over the skirt.

Deming Chamber of Commerce Encourages Agriculture and Dairying in the Mimbres Valley.

Deming, N. M., Jan. 28.—At a full meeting of the board of directors of the Deming chamber of commerce, it was unanimously voted that the chamber of commerce take a direct hand in the advancement of agriculture and dairying. A resolution was adopted giving to each farmer who shall build a silo in conformity with plans agreed upon by the committee, of which Dr. P. K. Connaway, one of our largest farmers, is chairman, $10 cash, providing the farmer agrees to plant a crop for ensilage purposes that shall fill the silo, and the committee was further empowered to cooperate with the Mimbres Valley Farmers' association in procuring cows for dairy purposes and stock for feeding purposes.

This is considered by both farmers and business men of this vicinity to be a progressive step. As farmers are coming from the northern states in large numbers it will tend to convince them that the community interests of the valley are all working toward the success of those who take a live interest in the development of this country.

A regular meeting of the Alamogordo Commercial club, a resolution was adopted inviting Senator C. J. Lauchlin and Secretary Willard E. Holt to give the members of the Alamogordo Commercial club a talk on how Deming has made a success in the building of a modern city, and the development of a great valley by pumping for irrigation. Senator Lauchlin and Secretary Holt have decided to accept the invitation and will go to Alamogordo on Tuesday evening, Feb. 17.

Miss Agnes Wilson, of Pennabore, W. Va., has arrived to look after her land here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Coleman and little son arrived from Needles, Calif., to make their home on a Mimbres valley farm.
